General Notes on the Liturgical Schedule for 2009-2010

Worship is central to the life of the church. God's people respond to God's goodness and love with a whole life response. In our baptismal covenant we express something of what such a response looks like. This whole life response is a response of worship.

The liturgical life of a parish is an important part of that response, for in word and sacrament we continue to celebrate all the mighty saving acts of God and learn how to embody that story for the sake of the world.

As we look forward to our shared life of worship in this parish, we pray that God will be blessed by the offering that we bring, that we might worship, not only with our lips, but in our lives. We pray that the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, will work in us to make us a people worthy to be called by the name "Christian". We pray that all who worship with us may be drawn into the great story of our salvation and with us become worshippers of God the Father, through the Son, Jesus Christ and in the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

This is a working document and subject to change. This document is meant to assist in planning by beginning the conversation about the schedule of services for the year ahead. As such, changes in the schedule are inevitable and to be expected as we go along. Every effort will be made to keep the information on this document current. See the note below regarding updates to this schedule. It is hoped that this schedule can be maintained as the main place for worship planners to go to in order to get the latest information.

Updates. Every effort will be made to keep the information on this document current. Recent updates may be highlighted so that they may more easily be identified. Updates of this document can be found on my web site at www.djanderson.com on the Worship Resources page. Hard copies may be requested from the office and copies of the schedule for dates upcoming in the near future will be kept in the sacristy for the use of those preparing set up for the various liturgies.

AV Requirements. AV notes are provided where services are unusual or where special needs are anticipated. Otherwise, it should be assumed that normal AV requirements apply to the standard Sunday services.

Other notes. Notes are included in the schedule for other various reasons. Occasionally there may be notes included for musicians, the coordinators of welcomers or intercessors, etc. If you are the director or coordinator of an applicable ministry, please take note of any special needs for a particular service, and pass the information along to the appropriate person.

Please forward any questions and report any errors or omissions to myself at anderson@rockonlocke.ca.

Peace,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "David", with a small cross symbol above the end of the name.
